WELCOME TO THE PARISH MASS FOR REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Remembrance is at the heart of much of what we as Christians do.

Week by week, or even day by day, we enact the Lord Jesus' command to "do this in remembrance of me" at the Holy Eucharist.

Remembrance means to re-join, to keep together, to mend, to repair, to call to mind.

The Holy Eucharist is a total experience that involves all our senses and reaches down into the core of our being, at the same time out past the boundaries of time and space into the the reality of God's eternity.

Today we especially remember those who were caught up with what has been described as "hell on earth" - war, and we remember them before God, praying with great trust that He will gather those souls to Himself to be where He is, and to enjoy His peace which passes all understanding.

The National Anthem

God save our gracious King!
Long live our noble King!
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign.
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause,
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King

First Reading - Isaiah 25.6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined.

And he will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations.

He will swallow up death for ever; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day,
“Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us.

This is the Lord; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.”

Psalm 22

The Response (R) *The Lord is my shepherd there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit. R

He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. R

You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. R

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
for ever and ever. R

Second Reading - St Paul's letter to the Philippians 3.20-21

But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.

Gospel - Luke 23.33, 39-43

And when they came to the place that is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on his right and one on his left.

One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong."

And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

And he said to him, "Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."
