A Christmas message from Father Ian Edgar, Priest-in-Charge at All Saints

Christmas is a very special time in the lives of our families, our communities, our country and indeed all of the world!

On behalf of the congregation at All Saints Church, in Sidley, I welcome you to take part in the ages old tradition of celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ with hymns, carols, readings from Holy Scripture and in the breaking of Bread, which we call the Mass.

Over 2000 years ago Jesus, the Son of God came amongst us in the flesh, and His birth, which we celebrate at Christmas, was a momentous event in history. His call for us to love one another as He loves us, to care for the poor and the sick, changed the way in which humanity understands itself, and gives us a new focus and a new hope.

You are most welcome to join us at any and all of these celebrations in the run up Christmas (we also have Elvis coming on Tuesday 17th at 7:30pm for a bit of fun!), and afterwards (Christmas is a 12 day feast after all!).

If you would like to know more about what we do at All Saints, or about the Christian faith, please be in touch with me at: fr.ianedgar@gmail.com or ring me at 01424 322816, or join us Sundays at 10am for Mass, I'd be happy to chat after the service! You can also follow us on Facebook and Instagram.

We at All Saints wish you all the best this Christmas and for 2025.
